No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

THE NEW MARVEL.—Miss Anna Dickinson, a Philadelphia damsel, is now the latest sensation of Atlantic towns and cities. This precocious young lady of eighteen summers, who has since her fifteenth birthday contributed largely to the support of her mother and younger sisters, has turned more honest pennies within a few months as a speaker than she received in all her years of drudgery as a teacher. And now abundant wealth awaits her pleasure. It is not the matter that she gives—for that is merely her rendering of what she has read or heard from the lips of Wendell Phillips; but it is her manner and the novelty of forensic display by a maiden that attract the multitude. Of her appearance the Home Journal has something to say, from the pen of an adept in describing remarkable women—N. P. Willis:

Miss Dickinson is a symmetrical young creature; every movement showing a well-knit agility of frame, and her build and action altogether being just what would be picked out for a daring horsewoman. The Napoleonic mould of her jaw expresses the energy which is her leading characteristic. Her features are otherwise well chiseled, her forehead and upper lip of the Greek proportion, and her nostrils thin. The men would all call her beautiful, if the women would admit it with their usual reluctance, but we thought (ourself) that she was a beauty, but for the look, a little too determined, of that strongly moulded jaw, though this would better hold the throat latched to a helmet, and make her look more like a Semiramis in the field. She wore her hair with the adolescent cut of a young Hophmeister, bad long sleeves and a high necked dress, and, with the contralto fullness of her voice, seemed, in fact, more ready for masculine service than for the "comforting tenderness" of her sex. But how, under the delicacy of a girl of eighteen, could be gathered the strong wisdom which she poured forth so volubly that night, was to us a wonder. As she walked up and down before the thousands in that crowded hall, she discussed topics so grave that they required rather the scope and grasp of a Senator's mind, or a historian's, and presented them to the enthusiastic crowd with a fluency that was wholly without hindrance. How, to such youthful lips flowed so easily such stately language! How, over every gesture and every look, every turn of argument and every cadence of voice, reigned such absolute self-possession! How, amid the gracefulness of that virgin beauty, could accumulate the thunder to denounce a Ingraham as she denounced McClellan, execrate traitors as she did Byr—nd and David Brooks, and modest as it all was, it was too easy not to seem natural. It was a woman in the exercise of an inspired gift.

A lady friend who met Miss Dickinson at the house of Charles Gould tells us that the eloquent damsel there held a long and animated conversation with Fremont, and that her manner in society is so tranquil and thoughtful as to inspire great respect. Her expression is absorbent and deferential, and she is much admired by the eminent men with whom she chances to converse. Fremont says she reminds him very strongly of Rachel, the French woman of genius, and that her tones particularly are wonderfully like the great tragedienne's. What is to be the destiny of such a Miss? She has appeared now forty-three times in public, and is to go on with what she knew from childhood (she says) was to be her "mission." The advent of a "Joan of Arc" is prophesied, as we all know. But is it to be for this time and crisis, and is Miss Dickinson "the woman" on whom the mantle has already fallen?

THE CAPTURE OF RICHMOND.—A great deal is written and said of the importance of this act, and beyond a doubt it would make a great noise on both sides of the Atlantic and have a great moral effect. We do not believe however, that in a military point of view, it would yield any grand advantage. The N. Y. Evening Post says on this point, as we think with much good sense, that—

We cannot understand the importance which the popular mind attaches to the capture of Richmond. If Jeff. Davis and all his official crew can be taken at the same time we should have the means of silencing a few pernicious individuals. But the rebellion would still live. Neither Richmond nor the present officials are essential to its continuance. There would be a good moral effect produced, both at home and abroad, by the taking of the temporary capital of the rebels; but in a military or political sense Richmond possesses little consequence. In a military way, indeed, the capture of it would be an embarrassment to us, while in the political way it would bring us no strength.

HERE SHE GOES—THERE SHE GOES.—We thank our friend at the Dalles who sent us the copies of the Mountaineer containing various articles, showing its recent sympathy with secession, and its readiness to become all things to all men. When we have leisure and it seems expedient, we will use them to show its active and constant fluctuation and how little it deserves the confidence of anybody. In the meantime, if abuse of the OREGONIAN and its editor will keep it from slandering the Government and working directly or indirectly in the interest of rebellion, we have not a word to say. It can "peg away" till it is weary, and prove its temporary fidelity to the Henry faction, of which it is really a very fitting organ, both in principle and ability, playing tunes like those which come from Salem and Polkville.

SOUND.—Colonel Chester Harding, Jr., commanding the St. Joseph (Missouri) district, has ordered the arrest of all Southern sympathizers. He says it is the duty of every loyal man to do something for the Government, and all who admit that they have done nothing are rebels.

The Union Loyal Club of Vancouver.

To the Citizens of Clark County, W. T.

Who do you want for Probate Judge? If you want a political trickster who, at the last session of the Legislature, procured the passage of an Act to extend the jurisdiction of the Probate Court, (in violation of the Organic Act,) and taxing suitors with a docket fee of ten dollars in each case, to be paid to the Judge; said political trickster at that time being Judge of Probate in Clark County—then vote for A. J. Lawrence.

If you want a man who, filling that office at the time of nominations for County Officers, and professing to be a Lawyer, undertook to persuade the people that by submission of locus focus legislative legerdemain, he, the incumbent, held over for three years by operation of law; who succeeded in persuading the so-called Democratic Convention to forbear making any nomination for that office for the purpose of enabling him to hold over, (the Democratic Auditor of the county leaving out the Judge of Probate entirely in his election notice,) and who afterwards, while canvassing the county, professedly for George E. Cole, becoming alarmed, (the Union men having nominated a candidate,) projected his own nomination by the acclamation of a few copperheads at the meetings he addressed—then vote for A. J. Lawrence.

If you desire the practice which is said to exist to be continued, viz.: that of midnight delving among the old musty records of dead men's estates—men who have long slumbered beneath the cold clods of the valley, and whose estates have long since been settled and appropriated—and that for the purpose of finding pettifogger's pretext to roll and fort-ten settlements for the sake of a few paltry dollars in the shape of costs—then vote for A. J. Lawrence.

If you desire that office to be filled by a miserable, pettifogging, political trickster, entirely innocent of the charge of having any honest political or moral intention—then vote for A. J. Lawrence.

If you desire that office to be filled by a genuine, simon-pure Copperhead, a man who does not blush to state upon the stump that it is the settled policy of the Democratic party to prolong this war until they can again come into power, in order that they may have the credit of bringing about a peace—then vote for A. J. Lawrence.

But if you are honest men, Democrats, Republicans, Union men, one and all! if you have the good of your country at heart; if you hate treason and traitors and those who sympathize with them; in a word, if you love your country, and its laws and the administration of them in their purity—then vote for any man other than A. J. Lawrence.

UNION CLUB.

PERFECTLY HARMONIOUS.—The leading copperheads of the North seem to have a perfect understanding with the enemy. When Beauregard suggested to Bragg the propriety of calling the Union soldiers abolitionists because it would have a "stinging effect," the copperheads promptly complied. When the copperheads succeeded in wheedling a majority of the citizen voters of certain States to support their ticket, joy pervaded the South. The speeches of Vallandigham were generally copied down in Dixie, because they cheered the rebel heart and suggested the probability of a Northern surrender. From motives of policy, some of the Richmond papers sneered at the labors of their Buckeye agent; but outside of the rebel Capital, the game not being understood, Vallandigham was eulogized in glowing terms. It now appears that the nomination of this unblushing advocate of Southern despotism on loyal soil for Governor of the Stated of Ohio was first suggested by a rebel journal, and that the Ohio copperheads merely adopted in programme conceived by their friends in Dixie. The Chattanooga Rebel of the 29th of May, in the course of an article upon the arrest and banishment of the patriotic Clement, significantly says: "He is our style of man, and as such we do not wish him consigned to the obscurity and misfortune of an exile, where he is powerless for good." That is to say, the location where "our style of man" can do the cause of the Confederacy the most good is north of the Ohio. We thought so all the time. The Rebel then proceeds to dictate the course Vallandigham is to pursue. It says: "The road he is to take is direct and gas-lighted all the way. It leads first out of sump Confederate port to Nassau, thence to Canada, and finally to the Gubernatorial chair of Ohio."

"Let Vallandigham's return be as speedy. Let the absence of a single month find him issuing an address to the people of his State from Lower Canada, proclaiming these things to them: 'I am a loyal citizen of the Union, and a soldier thereof and of freedom—banished against the law and the Constitution—thrown, contrary to my will, across the lines of the public enemy, whose refusal to receive or recognize me establish before all men my patriotism and my honor. I, C. L. Vallandigham, persecuted, exiled, mobbed and covered by cowardly tyrants and by bayonets, but not dead, nor dumb, issue these words, and declare myself a candidate for Governor of Ohio.' The effect would be magnificent."

The Ohio copperheads listened and obeyed. They have nominated for Governor the man whom the rebels believe can do good service for their cause in the North, but they have still the most difficult portion of the programme to execute, to-wit: to get possession of their candidate, and then elect him Governor of Ohio.—Sacramento Union.

TREASURY DRAFTS—SOMETHING NOT KNOWN IN OREGON.—Assistant Treasurer Cheesman wishes to make it generally known that according to the regulations of the United States Treasury Department, all warrants or drafts must be presented within six months from the date of their issue; if not presented within that time, they must be returned to the Treasury at Washington for re-issue. Merchants and business men here are aware of this fact, but farmers away up in Oregon and Washington Territory are not so well posted, and confident that Uncle Samuel's signature is good for any amount, not for one day only but for all time, hold on to their warrants and drafts until they have need of the money. If they suffer the six months from date to expire without presentation, however, it is of no use to present them to Mr. Cheesman. They must be sent on to the Treasury Department at Washington, where they will receive the endorsement on the back: Pay the within; then they will be paid at the Assistant Treasurer's here. Parties who endorse drafts and warrants, too, must endorse them precisely as their names are written in the body of the paper—thus, if a draft were made payable to the order of John Doe Attorney, and endorsed simply John Doe, it could not be paid; neither would it if drawn in favor of "Thompson" and the name spelt with a p in the body of the paper, were written without a p on the back. If Oregon and Washington Territory papers copy these facts they will save some of their subscribers trouble and annoyance.—S. F. Bulletin.

We have already published the statement above referred to, but we cheerfully repeat it that the citizens of Oregon and Washington Territory may not be troubled. Let those concerned take notice.

LATER.—The steamer will bring one day's later news than published this morning.

By Overland Telegraph.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to June 26th.

NEW YORK, June 25th.—The Baltimore American of yesterday, says there is no doubt that Lee purposes a renewed attempt to capture Washington by the Maryland route. His advance into the Cumberland is for forage and supplies. He has no purpose of penetrating to Harrisburg. It is also believed that Hooker will to-day have a large force in Frederick, or between the rebel army and Baltimore and Washington.

The garrison at Maryland Heights forms the right wing of Hooker's army, and is under his command.

NEW YORK, June 25th.—The Herald's Washington dispatch says, the rebel forces are composed of Ewell's corps of 25,000 Longstreet's, 42,000; A. P. Hill's (rear guard) 18,000; Stewart's, 18,000, and Johnson's, 3,000. Richmond is defended by D. H. Hill with 25,000; Francis, 12,000, and a heavy brigade under Wise, on the York river railroad.

Gen. Carter has two brigades at Hanover Junction, with 15,000 mounted Texans.

Jackson commands in East Tennessee, and has Pegram's force of 2,000, which with the force at Cumberland Gap, is expected to invade Kentucky.

HARRISBURG, June 25th, 2 P. M.—During the afternoon, last night, and up to the present time, long trains of wagons, loaded with goods and household furniture, entered this city. Farmers are flocking in with their horses, also, a large number of contrabands of all ages and sizes. The rebel column is slowly advancing on Carlisle.

FREDERICK, (Md.,) June 25th.—Several Union men, who have just arrived from Hagerstown and Boonsboro, say a rebel force of 40,000 arrived there yesterday, from Williamsport. It was believed that Lee's whole army was crossing at Shepherdstown and Williamsport. The force which arrived at Hagerstown, was infantry and artillery.

A special dispatch to the Herald, dated at Washington, June 26th, says, news from Harper's Ferry to-night, states that Lee's force, or a greater portion of it, is evidently following Ewell's advance into Maryland and Pennsylvania. No disposition is shown to attack our force at Harper's Ferry or at Maryland Heights.

HARRISBURG, June 26th.—The Governor, by authority of the War Department, will issue a proclamation to-morrow, calling for 5,000 militia, for three years, for the defence of the State.

NEW YORK, June 26th.—A Harrisburg special despatch, dated last night, to the Herald, says the enemy are advancing slowly and our troops are cutting down trees and fences and barricading the roads to Carlisle. The rebels say they intend to destroy the crops in Cumberland valley, and have already done so to a great extent.

Two rebel officers were captured to-day.

All the drinking saloons in Harrisburg were closed by the Mayor to day.

Considerable reinforcements have been sent to Gen. Knipe, who will defend what we now hold of Cumberland valley.

A Harrisburg dispatch, dated ten o'clock last night, says: The rebels seem to have come to a dead stand. Our troops are advantageously posted. No report of fighting to-night. Telegraph still open to Carlisle. Ewell's headquarters are at Shippinsburg.

PHILADELPHIA, June 26.—The Press publishes a special from Harrisburg stating that Gov. Curtin has received a telegram from the operator at McConnellsville, saying that the rebels under Jenkins entered that town after a severe skirmish with some of Milroy's men. Milroy is preparing to drive the rebels out. A battle is certain. The excitement at Pittsburg is unabated. Troops are being organized rapidly.

A Harrisburg letter was received to-day by the Press saying that Knipe was reinforced by several regiments and ordered to repel the further advance of the rebels.

It is admitted that Hooker's army is preparing to meet Lee. Longstreet and Lee were at Hagerstown on Wednesday. An immense army was there.

Gen. Rhodes' division is at Chambersburg. The rebels captured about 4,000 horses, and are still mounting infantry.

HARRISBURG, June 26.—Gen. Knipe thinks his force is sufficient to meet the rebels. He evacuated Carlisle last night. He reports the rebels 100,000 strong.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Gov. Parker, of New Jersey, has issued a proclamation calling upon citizens to fill up the ranks of old regiments and also fill up five new regiments of infantry and two of cavalry, for the war.

Gen. Butterfield, chief of Hooker's staff, was in Baltimore last night in consultation with Schenck.

A special dispatch to the Post says that no harm is apprehended from the advance on Richmond.

The Times' special dispatch says: Admiral Dahlgren was to-day ordered, by a vote taken at a Cabinet meeting, of five to three, to Charleston, to take command.

Gen. Milroy is understood to have been relieved of his command.

ST. LOUIS, June 24.—In the State Convention yesterday the Committee on Emancipation presented a report. They recommend that the first and second clauses of the twenty-sixth section of the third article of the Constitution shall be abrogated. Slavery or involuntary servitude except for the punishment of crime, shall cease to exist in Missouri on the 4th of July, 1876; all slaves within the State on that day shall be declared free; slaves thereafter brought into the State, not belonging to citizens of the rebellious States shall be free; all slaves removed by consent of their owners to any seceded State after the passage of the ordinance of secession and thereafter brought into the State by their owners shall be free. The General Assembly shall have no power to pass laws to emancipate slaves without the consent of the owner.

A minority report was also submitted, abrogating the same clauses of the Constitution declaring slavery abolished on the 1st of January, 1865; providing the slaves and their issue be apprenticed to their former owners until July 4, 1876; requiring the Legislature to pass laws to regulate the same; the relations of the apprentices to their masters must be defined by law to secure humane treatment and necessary education; providing against the importation or immigration of any negro or mulatto into the State; the former assessment upon slave property shall be collected; and shall the right to the service of an apprentice be subject to taxation. Provision is also made to submit the ordinance to a vote of the people at the next August election. The reports were made the special order for to-day.

FROM BOISE.—Mr. Rockefellow furnishes the following items to the Washington Statesman:

The new diggings on the Owyhee were exciting considerable attention at Placerville and Bannock City, and all the unemployed were leaving those places for the new Eldorado. The accounts of the richness of these mines were well authenticated. The diggings are confined as yet to one creek, and the average prospects obtained in the richest districts was 30 cents to the pan—taking the dirt from hill to hill, a distance of from 40 to 60 yards.

A pack train of emigrants from the States arrived at Bannock last week. They report that there are 75,000 emigrants on the road for the Boise mines, some of whom will arrive in two or three weeks.

A wagon train had also arrived from Pike's Peak. They also report a large emigration from that place.

Two men, with a couple of Indian guides, started from Bannock last week for Salt Lake, for the purpose of establishing an express between these points. They propose to make through trips in seven days, or the "round trip" in fourteen days.

SPENCER HALL SCHOOL.—We acknowledge the receipt of a very neatly printed catalogue of this Institution, at Milwaukie. It is now in its two years. The School is under the superintendence of Rt. Rev. Bishop during the past year was taught by Mr. L. Foster, a very competent and faithful instructor. The number of pupils has been since September last.

The next Term will commence on the 22d of September. The charges for tuition and board, being $60 per

THE steamer Rival will leave Oregon on the morning of the Fourth, at 7 and will return after the display of fireworks, thus giving the citizens of that place an opportunity of participating in the celebration here.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE FOURTH.—Workmen were engaged yesterday in erecting the speaker's stand and benches on the Public Square, for the celebration on the Fourth.

NOT ARRIVED.—The steamer Shubrick is due, had not arrived at 12 o'clock last night.

SISTER'S SCHOOL.—We shall publish a report of the exhibition of this school, which took place yesterday, to-morrow.

FROM THE UPPER COUNTRY.—Arrivals from the interior bring the following items:

Charles Frush, of the Fort Benton Express, was robbed by "road agents" of $3,000 in gold dust, belonging to W. J. Terry of Walla Walla.

Fifteen thousand pounds of wool have been shipped from Walla Walla valley to the East this season.

A petition is now in circulation for a mail route from Lewiston to the Placerville and Bannock City.

Hurley & Co., at Lewiston, have received $9,000 of gold dust in one week.

Miners are leaving Elk City for the Salmon River mines, reports from that region are very encouraging.

Paying mines have been discovered on the Snake River as high as Fort Hall.

The Fort Benton Expressmen report that when they left that place steamers were hourly expected from St. Louis. 130 teams and pack trains were in readiness to convey cargoes and passengers into Bannock City and Deer Lodge mines. The Indian tribes, embracing the Crows and Blackfeet, have come to a peaceful understanding with each other, and hereafter will be friendly. News has been received that rich discoveries of gold had been found on the Fork of the Yellow Stone.

The citizens of Lewiston are about to build a light draught steamboat to run on the Snake river. The lumber is to be furnished by Leland & Co., and the steamer is to be built at the mouth of the Assotin, on Snake River.

In all the mines the want of hands is complained of. The highest wages are offered. Water is also very scarce.

THE LOYALTY OF CALIFORNIA.—Rev. Starr King, in a late letter to church friends in Boston, says:

I rejoice that I can report to you, brethren, that the State is loyal. She is sound to the core. We are opening copper veins all over our surface, but there is none of that metal in our heads. We hope to show you, in the election of Governor, to hold office for four years, that there are States in New England which can catch the inspiration of patriotism from California. I hazard nothing in saying that San Francisco is to-day the most loyal city of the American republic.

Several military organizations are forming in Philadelphia, with the object of offering their services to the Government for the purpose of protecting it against the traitors and sympathizers with rebellion who disgrace portions of the loyal North.

SPECIAL MEETING.—The Board of Delegates of the Portland Fire Department will meet in the Council Chamber this Thursday evening, July 2d, at 8 o'clock, to transact special business of importance. E. G. RANDALL, President.

MULTNOMAH No. 2.—Regular Meeting this evening at 7½ o'clock precisely.

BEN. L. NORDEN, Sec'y.

To Consumptives.—Every sufferer from CONSUMPTION in whatever stage, should try DR. HALE'S BALSAM, and prove to their own satisfaction that including and ending in CONSUMPTION, many of whom may not have used this remedy, that they should be allowed to read a few of the cases where its influence has been useful in remedying complaints from which they are suffering. The EXPECTORANT

Operates immediately upon the Disease,

SURELY AND SPEEDILY ERADICATING IT, while the SANATIVE PILLS, by preserving regularity in the Bowels, and giving a healthy tone to the other internal organs, aid and assist the perfect operation of the former.

Attention is asked to the following Certificates, selected at random from the mass in the possession of the proprietors:

UPPER CHICHILAND, Chester Co. Pa., Sept. 15, 1858.
DR. D. JAYNE—Having been afflicted with ASTHMA and BRONCHITIS, and having used the advice of some of the most eminent physicians, whose skillful treatment of my case did not prove to be of any avail, I obtained no relief for my suffering until I commenced the use of your EXPECTORANT. After taking it for about three months, I was entirely cured.
NATHAN PENNYPACKER.

ASTORIA, Long Island, Jan. 15, 1860.
L. W. TYRRELL, Esq. New York—Sir: As you well know I had been afflicted with BRONCHITIS accompanied with the most painful tightness of the chest, and great difficulty in breathing for nearly two months, and I had almost lost all confidence in the power of medicine to relieve when your Expectorant was given to me, which soon (but not before a Physician had been called in) gave me relief. Three or four days after having commenced to take it, my cough was entirely subdued, the expectoration was easy, and the breathing quite free.
I am now quite another man, and my general health has never been better.
I remain, my dear sir, truly yours,
J. B. MONTE.

WINSTEAD, Tuscarawas Co. O., May 31, 1860.
DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: My son was for one and a half years afflicted with a disease resembling CONSUMPTION. For two years he was not able to labor. He was finally induced to try your EXPECTORANT and PILLS, and after taking 10 bottles and some PILLS, was completely cured, and is now able to labor every day.
JOHN HENRY.

We would add to the above that we sold to Mr. Henry the medicine for his son, and know that the statement is true.

FAMILY
SEWING MACHINE

Are unequaled by any for beauty, simplicity of construction and efficacy in working, and will do
IN A PERFECT MANNER,
A greater range of work than any other machine.

The value of a Sewing Machine cannot be estimated by the amount of wood, iron, brass or steel used in its construction, but by the manner in which these materials are put together, and the quantity and quality of the work it turns out. You can buy a watch or a piano-forte for very little money; but if you want either for your own use, you wish an article which can be relied upon, and you will purchase accordingly.

LADD & WEBSTER'S

use a straight needle; curved ones are liable to break.
They make a tight lock-stitch, alike on both sides of the work, which cannot be ravelled.
Every machine is sent from our office threaded, and with work under the needle ready for operation, accompanied with such explicit printed instructions as will enable persons who may never have seen a machine to teach themselves.

DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable extracts. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use, and I most sincerely say that I have never known any medicine to be equal to it in the least. I will cheerfully refer to the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it in the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with trying, I will refund the money. Call on the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of half a teaspoonful, internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe the gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Pain Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

Bogus Loyalty.

There are a great many people clamoring to be loyal—indeed it seems that there is the only true stamp of loyalty—who pretend to be able to distinguish between the Administration and the Government, and think they can support the one while opposing the other; and a 'platform' gotten up by some of the dissatisfied obstructionists is now being circulated, which holds the opposition to the head and heart of the Government is 'as incumbent on all true patriots as is support to the Government itself.' The man who honestly believes in such an absurdity is a natural fool; the man who asserts it without believing it is an unnatural traitor—and can be distinguished from an open rebel only in this: the latter bears a gun and Beauregard; the other works with poison and the secret dagger. A writer in Harper's Weekly thus dissects one of these Southern creatures—a type of entire genus:

I lately dined in company with one of these double young gentlemen who, as Theodore Winthrop says in 'Cecil Dreeme,' praise slavery and think they are aristocratic. The young gentleman went on for some time, when Mrs —— said to him, politely:

'If you sympathize with the rebels, why don't you go and join them?'

'I, madame? I assure you I am perfectly loyal.'

'Indeed?'

'Why, certainly, only I stand by the Government, not by the Administration.'

'So Vallandingham says.'

'I mean I am no Abolitionist.'

'So Brooks says.'

'But, sir, I am afraid we are alienating the South.'

'So Tom Seymour says.'

'In other words, I am a Union man but don't think war can restore it.'

'So Toucey says.'

'But, my dear madame, the war is unconstitutionally carried on.'

'So George Ticknor Curtis says.'

'I mean that your liberties are in danger.'

'So Fernando Wood says.'

'Well, but isn't the war fratricidal?'

'So Ben Wood says.'

'Come, then, isn't it hopeless?'

'So the London Times says.'

'Yes, my dear madame, but what on earth do you say?'

'I say that whoever stands against the Administration in this war stands against the Government. I say that whoever says he is no abolitionist means that he intends to embarass the war. I say that whoever is afraid of alienating the South is afraid of irritating a snake that has already stung him. I say that whoever thinks that force cannot restore the Union does not know that Union is the most irresistible instinct of the American people. I say that whoever says that the war is unconstitutionally carried on is in danger of being split by the tempest in which he is trying to split hairs. I say that whoever says our liberties are imperilled by the Government and not by the rebellion, works and prays for the success of the rebellion and the annihilation of all civil liberty and order. I say that whoever calls the war fratricidal has no more conception of national honor than lottery dealers are said to have of honesty. I say that whoever considers the cause of the United States hopeless, hates that cause in his heart, and is utterly ignorant of the character of the people and of the facts of the situation. That is what I say, and that is what every truly American man and woman says and believes.'

The young gentleman made no reply, but next day at the Club he said to a friend, 'I dined yesterday at Mrs ——'s. What an awful Abolitionist she is!'

INDIAN ANECDOTE.—Years ago, when the copper-faced natives had mingled with the whites just long enough to confuse their ideas of propriety, when Judge Johnson held his Court on the banks of the Mohawk, Big John, a prince of the royal family of Kinnikinnick, was arraigned, tried and convicted of the larceny of New England fire water. According to the laws in operation at that remote period, Big John was sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars, which was duly forked over, whereupon the original culprit was allowed to go. John gathered his blanket around him, and approaching the Judge demanded a receipt for his five dollars. 'There is no occasion for a receipt,' said the Judge; 'you will never be called upon to pay it again.' 'Ugh! big Indun steal whiskey—pay five dollars—want no receipt.' 'We don't give receipts here, John.' But the son of the forest was not to be cheated. He bored the clerk, the sheriff, and every one connected with the Court, until the Judge, concluded to give him a receipt to get clear of him. He therefore, called him up to the bench and said to him: 'John, if you will tell me what you want with a receipt, I'll give you one.' Upon which the red man delivered himself as follows: 'Big John die one o' these days.' He go up to Heaven—knock at the gate. Peter say, Who knock at the gate of Heaven?' 'Big John.' 'John you pay for dat whiskey you stole?' 'Yes.' 'Shove the receipt under the gate, John.' Then Big John have to go hunt all through hell to find Judge Johnson to get his receipt.'

SHAMEFUL EXHIBITION (?).—Not content with dangling hoop skirts over the side walks, like gibbeted skeletons, says the New York Sunday Times the dealers in these expansive articles have obtruded them on the carriage ways. One manufacturer keeps an advertising wagon rigged out with the interesting objects, parading Broadway from morning till night. Supported on ropes running from stem to stern of the vehicle, and attached to perpendicular poles at either end of it, are double ropes of the pyramidal arrangements of all sizes, from the moderate dimensions suitable for a miss in her teens to the huge circumferences necessary for dowagers of the heaviest tonnage. The crinoline caravan overtops the omnibuses, and has a singular appearance as it travels the crowded thoroughfare, with its hoops all shaking in the wind. The ladies are quite disgusted with the concern, and look upon it in the light of a public insult.

New Business for the Corn Exchange.

A good thing came off on Tuesday, when the Corn Exchange's last corps left Philadelphia for Harrisburg. Among the men was one who had a young wife. While they were waiting for the order to march, the young wife was taking leave of her husband, in accents broken, and eyes that lay bedewed in tears, like violets in a summer shower. The man caressed her, but the tears still started; he told her of the patriotism and munificence of the Corn Exchange Association, yet the crystals continued to fall. He told her of the country's danger, but her anger was not soothed. At last, weary of his endeavors, he tried another tack. 'Sally,' said he, 'quit crying—you see what the Corn Exchange has done. They've paid you my bounty, fitted me out and everything.'

'Oh,' the girl sobbed, but—

'But what?'

'But if you get killed, what then?'

'Why'—the man hesitated for a moment when a lucky thought struck him—'why the Corn Exchange will then find you another husband.'

The ludicrousness of the idea changed the current of the girl's feelings, and a smile wreathed her pretty mouth and dimples in a manner that was pleasant to behold. The last tear rolled away, and the word 'forward' was given. She cried the young recruit a last kiss, and departed in good cheer.

ARMY FEELING TOWARD VALLANDINGHAM.—When the King of the Copperheads visited Dixie Judas to his own place among the rebels he was passed through the army lines at Murfreesboro'. A correspondent says that "none save those immediately connected with General Rosecrans, knew anything of it, at the time when the prisoner would arrive, or when he would be sent South, and consequently there was no stir and no excitement. This secret proceeding was a precautionary measure for the personal safety of Vallandingham. No army in the United States is in a better state of discipline than the Army of the Cumberland. None is more easily controlled by its officers and kept within the strictest bounds of propriety and law. But had it been publicly known throughout the camps that the notorious Copperhead, Vallandingham, had arrived in town, it is the belief of those accustomed to reason most coolly, that all sense of discipline and restraint would have at once been lost, and that a crowd of ten thousand men would have collected instantly round the Provost Marshal's quarters by the middle of the most ungovernable excitement. What might have followed no human tongue can tell; but it is certain that each soldier in the army entertains for that man, Vallandingham, an intense and burning hatred, which can find expression only in curses. True they feel an stern indignation against the armed rebels in their front, and at the risk of limb and life itself are determined to subdue them; but their especial detestation is reserved for the slimy reptiles of the North who, with base ingratitude, hiss at the very soldiers whose sufferings and blood have thus far purchased for those ingrates exemption from the woes of war."

PRESIDENT LINCOLN AS A GENERAL.—The Chicago Tribune of May 28th, says:

'If the President, who is the best military man in or about Washington, will only draw his sword and put himself at the head of that Potomac army, we may get a victory in campaign that will end the war in six months.—We devoutly believe that he has more brains and sense than any of his subordinates in the Eastern army; and that, having steadily and under the spur of a great necessity applied himself to the study of military affairs particularly to the necessities of the country around the Capital, he is fully competent to assume in person the active duties of his high place as Commander-in-Chief.'
